Dear David

I am writing to thank you for the excellent service you gave us recently in respect of the leases owned by an insolvent firm of estate agents. It was important that we understood early on in our involvement with that business that we had an idea of the values of the leases of the seven properties it occupied; and you responded very quickly, giving clear, practical advice. That advice allowed us to finalise our own guidance to the partners of the insolvent business so they were able to negotiate a settlement with its principal creditor and thereby reduce their potential personal exposure by several thousand pounds.

Your extensive local knowledge and experience are clearly important assets which would be an advantage to anybody using your services.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely
