Dear Al

I am writing to say a huge thank you for two completely different levels of support you have given over the last 6 months.

I came to you recently with assistance required in negotiating my lease for new offices. When the lease came through as a 34 page document I just couldn't get my head round most of the terminology used. You explained everything in simple terms and made sure I was completely protected before going ahead with the new offices. Your down to earth approach was really appreciated and I really felt you made sure I understood everything before proceeding.

On a more personal note, I came to you several months ago with one of my closest friends needing assistance with starting divorce proceedings. This was an extremely upsetting time for my friend and the way you handled the whole situation was nothing short of fantastic. I know all the advice and support provided by you and your firm made my friend feel supported and clear on how to progress. I caught up with this friend last week for coffee and she spoke of how grateful she is to you and how she would recommend you to anyone who had any family issues.

All I can say is thank you so much for all the business and personal support given and I would have no hesitation in recommending you to anyone.... Friend, family or client.

Kind Regards
